

Welcome to Design School Kolding (DK)

BACKGROUND

Design School Kolding is an institute of higher education under the Ministry of Education. The school was founded in 1967.

The school moved to these premises in 1998 and at the same time changed the name from Kunsthåndværkerskolen to Designskolen Kolding – in English: Design School Kolding.

Study Areas:

Design School Kolding has about 350 students and provides design education within the following Departments:

Department for Industrial Design BA+ MA

Department for Fashion Design BA + MA

Department for Textile Design BA + MA

Department for Accessory Design BA

Department for Communication Design BA + MA

Entrance

The students have very different backgrounds when they start here, but the most common background is 9-10 years in public school, 3 years in an upper secondary school (gymnasium) and at least 2 years of preparation within their chosen subject. The students are normally between 22 – 25 years old before they start here.

They apply through portfolio, which they have to send to the school in April and the best are asked for an interview at the school. After this the selection is made and the chosen ones can start 1st September.

The Training

The school has 2 semesters.

First semester is from 1st September to 31st December.

Second semester is from 1st January to 30th June.

Teaching language on the Bachelor program is Danish, but most of the teachers speak English. The Master is in English. Most of the teachers are visiting teachers. The school has about 100 guest teachers for shorter courses.

The training is divided into a 3 year BA and a 2 year MA.

The first level is the Bachelor, which includes the first 3 study years. The study consists of basic common courses and specific courses within their chosen subjects.

2nd level is the Master and takes 2 years. The studies focus on major projects and the final graduating project.

Exchange / Incoming students

For the moment the school registers about 40 exchange students a year.

Their status can be different, such as exchange students through bilateral agreements, visiting students from other schools, or candidates who are not registered as students elsewhere, but just want to study at DK: for a shorter period of time. From all applicants we need application form, portfolio, letter of interest / motivation and a CV.

What is Kolding known for?

DK is rooted in the Danish cultural heritage and tradition of Danish Design. Our school is known for being anti-hierarchical, founded in humanism and focusing on design that is meaningful. We respect the raw material entailed in each student and staff member and value dialogue, equality and diversity. The school's approach to teaching is that we don't provide the answer. We discover it together.

DK's student intake is based on talent. This distinguishes DK from traditional universities. We cultivate and value talent and challenge it by teaching our students to reflect on their own process and by teaching them to collaborate by completing tasks related to specific contexts of use, preferably in interaction with industry. We believe that relating to history and tradition enables the creation of something new. At DK we work with tools, techniques, concepts and methods. We build on knowledge and research and emphasize sensory perception and experiments; uniting the hands and the mind.

DK has university status. We offer an academic setting that comprises a number of recognized researchers focusing on the emergent research field of design and a growing output of PhD projects. At the same time, we value professional practice and give priority to offering excellent workshop conditions enabling our students to work with the materials on a 1:1 scale.

We require our school faculty to be practitioners in their field, and our esteemed visiting faculty insures inspiration from professional practice.

In the words of former Master's degree student Alina Moat.

"Design School Kolding may be small compared to other schools, yet great in terms of human interaction, skill, and dedication".

THE GENETICS OF OUR STUDENTS:

Create form that is aesthetically appealing

Develop or identify ways of applying new materials

Design and facilitate processes

Represent the human factor in the design of technology

Be a fly on the wall in terms of making observations that are transformed into concepts

Be a fly in the soup in terms of involvement and insights into work processes that differ from their own

Sustain the ability to wonder and ask questions which may lead to new insights

Create sensory experiences which speak to more than the rational mind

Create products and services that are socially inclusive

Create processes that generate involvement and engagement across traditional professional disciplines

Stays longer than 3 months and countries where visa is needed for entering Denmark: non-EU/EEA citizens: Apply for and obtain a residence permit before going to Denmark. Take out insurance (health, theft, liability, and travel/luggage insurance).

EU/EEA citizens must bring along the blue European health insurance card.

Nordic citizens: bring along the internordic moving certificate "internordisk flyttebevis" if you stay longer than six months.

FORMALITIES FOR FOREIGN NATIONS COMING TO DENMARK

NON-EU/EEA NATIONS

For information on residence permits and other rules and regulations, please visit the website of the Danish Immigration Service at this website: <http://www.nyidanmark.dk/en-us/frontpage.htm>

EU/EEA NATIONS

Please, look at this website: <http://www.statsforvaltningen.dk/site.aspx?p=6394>

Please note that, the Design School Kolding has made arrangement for applying for residence permission upon arrival.

TAXES

In Denmark, paying taxes is statutory. If you plan to work in Denmark or you are entitled to receiving the Danish State Education Grant, you must carefully study the rules and regulations in order to avoid debts to the tax authorities who has the right to take retroactive action if the rules are not properly observed. Here is the link to the Tax office: <http://www.skat.dk/>

YOUR ADDRESS

Put your name on the door/letter box at your Danish residence, in order for the postman to find you. Otherwise you will not receive any mail.

If you change your address during your stay in Denmark, the National Register must be notified no later than five days after you have moved. It is also advisable to inform the post office, as your mail will then automatically be forwarded to your new address for six months after moving. When you leave Denmark again, you must notify the National Register no later than five days prior to your departure.

You must also inform the international office if you move during your stay here. Please, also remember to inform the international office if you change your phone number and when you get your Danish Social Security number!

HEALTH AND INSURANCE

Public health services are partly or fully subsidised for Danish residents. Thus, the conditions for medical and dental treatment for foreign visitors to Denmark depend on the length of their stay and their residential status.

MEDICAL TREATMENT

For stays exceeding three months.

If you are staying in Denmark on a residence permit or a registration certificate, i.e. if you are staying in Denmark for at least three months, you are automatically included in the Danish Health Insurance Scheme, when you register at the National Register. This gives you the right to free medical treatment by a general practitioner and in public hospitals.

Please, note that with a few exceptions, foreigners from outside the Nordic countries and the EU are not covered by the Danish Health Insurance Scheme until after six weeks from the date of arrival in Denmark. Such persons are advised to take out personal health insurance to cover the first six weeks of their stay.

When you register at the National Register, you will be asked to choose a general practitioner, and it may be a good idea to ask a Danish friend to recommend one. The personal registration number, which you receive, also serves as your health insurance number.

After your registration you will receive a yellow health insurance card. Always remember to bring the card when you see your doctor or your dentist. The name, address and phone number of your doctor will be printed on the card.

When leaving Denmark the yellow card must be returned to the National Register and you have to notify your departure either digitally or go to the local Borgerservice office in Bredgade.

For stays shorter than three months.

If your stay in Denmark is shorter than three months, you are not automatically covered by the Danish Health Insurance Scheme. The rules applicable vary according to nationality:

Nationals from the Nordic countries are entitled to the same medical treatment as Danish nationals.

Nationals from the EU countries are entitled to medical treatment in emergency cases and, provided they bring an E111 form from their home country, to the same medical treatment as Danish nationals.

Non-EU nationals are not covered by the Danish Health Insurance Scheme and are therefore strongly advised to take out personal insurance to cover expenses for medical treatment during their stay in Denmark. The International Health Insurance, phone: +45 33153099 may advise you, if you do not have an insurance from your home country. Please keep your self updated on new regulations on nyidanmark.dk

HOW TO GET IN TOUCH WITH A DOCTOR

Most doctors have open for a few emergency consultations every day. But normally you call them and make an appointment. The phone number of your doctor can be found on your yellow card.

If you need to consult a doctor on weekdays between 4.00p.m. and 8.00a.m., during weekends or public holidays, you must call the doctor on duty (Lægevagten) on phone: +45 70110707. Lægevagten is situated at the hospital. See address at the end of this information letter.

EMERGENCIES

In case of emergency, dial 112. Ask for an ambulance, the police or the fire department, state your name, address and the phone number you are calling from. Stay by the phone until your information has been confirmed.

If you need emergency treatment, you should contact the Accident and Emergency Department at Kolding Hospital (Kolding Sygehus, Skadestuen), which is open around the clock for minor injuries incurred within the last 24 hours. On those conditions emergency treatment is free. In case of severe injuries the Accident and Emergency Department at Kolding Hospital must be contacted.

DENTAL TREATMENT

Stay exceeding three months.

Dental treatment is subsidised to some extent, but the amount varies according to the treatment given. You are therefore advised to ask the dentist in advance what the treatment will cost you. Dental treatment is fairly expensive in Denmark. You must always remember to bring your yellow card.

Stays shorter than three months.

For foreigners staying in Denmark less than three months, dental treatment is not subsidised. You are therefore advised to take out personal insurance to cover any possible dental treatment. When contacting a dentist, you will be required to pay in cash.

How to get in touch with a dentist.

If you need dental treatment, you are free to choose your dentist. Look in the phone directory under Tandlæger, or ask a friend to recommend one. Please note that you will usually have to make an appointment in advance.

If you need to contact a dentist during weekends or public holidays, contact the dentist on duty (Tandlægevagten), phone: +45 65414551.

PRIVATE INSURANCE

Before your arrival in Denmark you should check whether you are covered by travellers' insurance or by insurance in your home country. You are strongly advised to take out insurance against theft, fire, etc. as well as a public liability and health insurance, as you are not covered by any insurance made by DK during your stay here.

Also make sure that you are covered if you get so ill that you have to be transported back to your home country. The Danish Health Insurance does not cover that (as Danes are home ☺).
